Ms Mani said, 'I am proud of my class!' and gave everyone storybooks.

Safari Checkpoint: What Really Happened?

Mummy woke up Aman.

Papa packed Aman's lunch box.

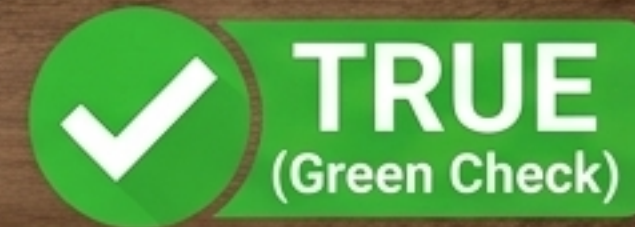

The show was named Teacher's Day.

Salma dressed up as a zebra.

Kanika dressed up as a rabbit.

He got up early and woke his parents!

It was 'Dear Animal Day'.

Safari Signals: Knowing When to Stop and Ask

The Full Stop.
We use this when we say something.

The little kitten is playing with the ball.

The Question Mark.
We use this when we
ask something.

What did you get for lunch?
Are you going to play with your friends?

Feelings and Actions

I am bored.

I want to play.

I am thirsty.

I want to drink.

I want to rest.

I am hungry.

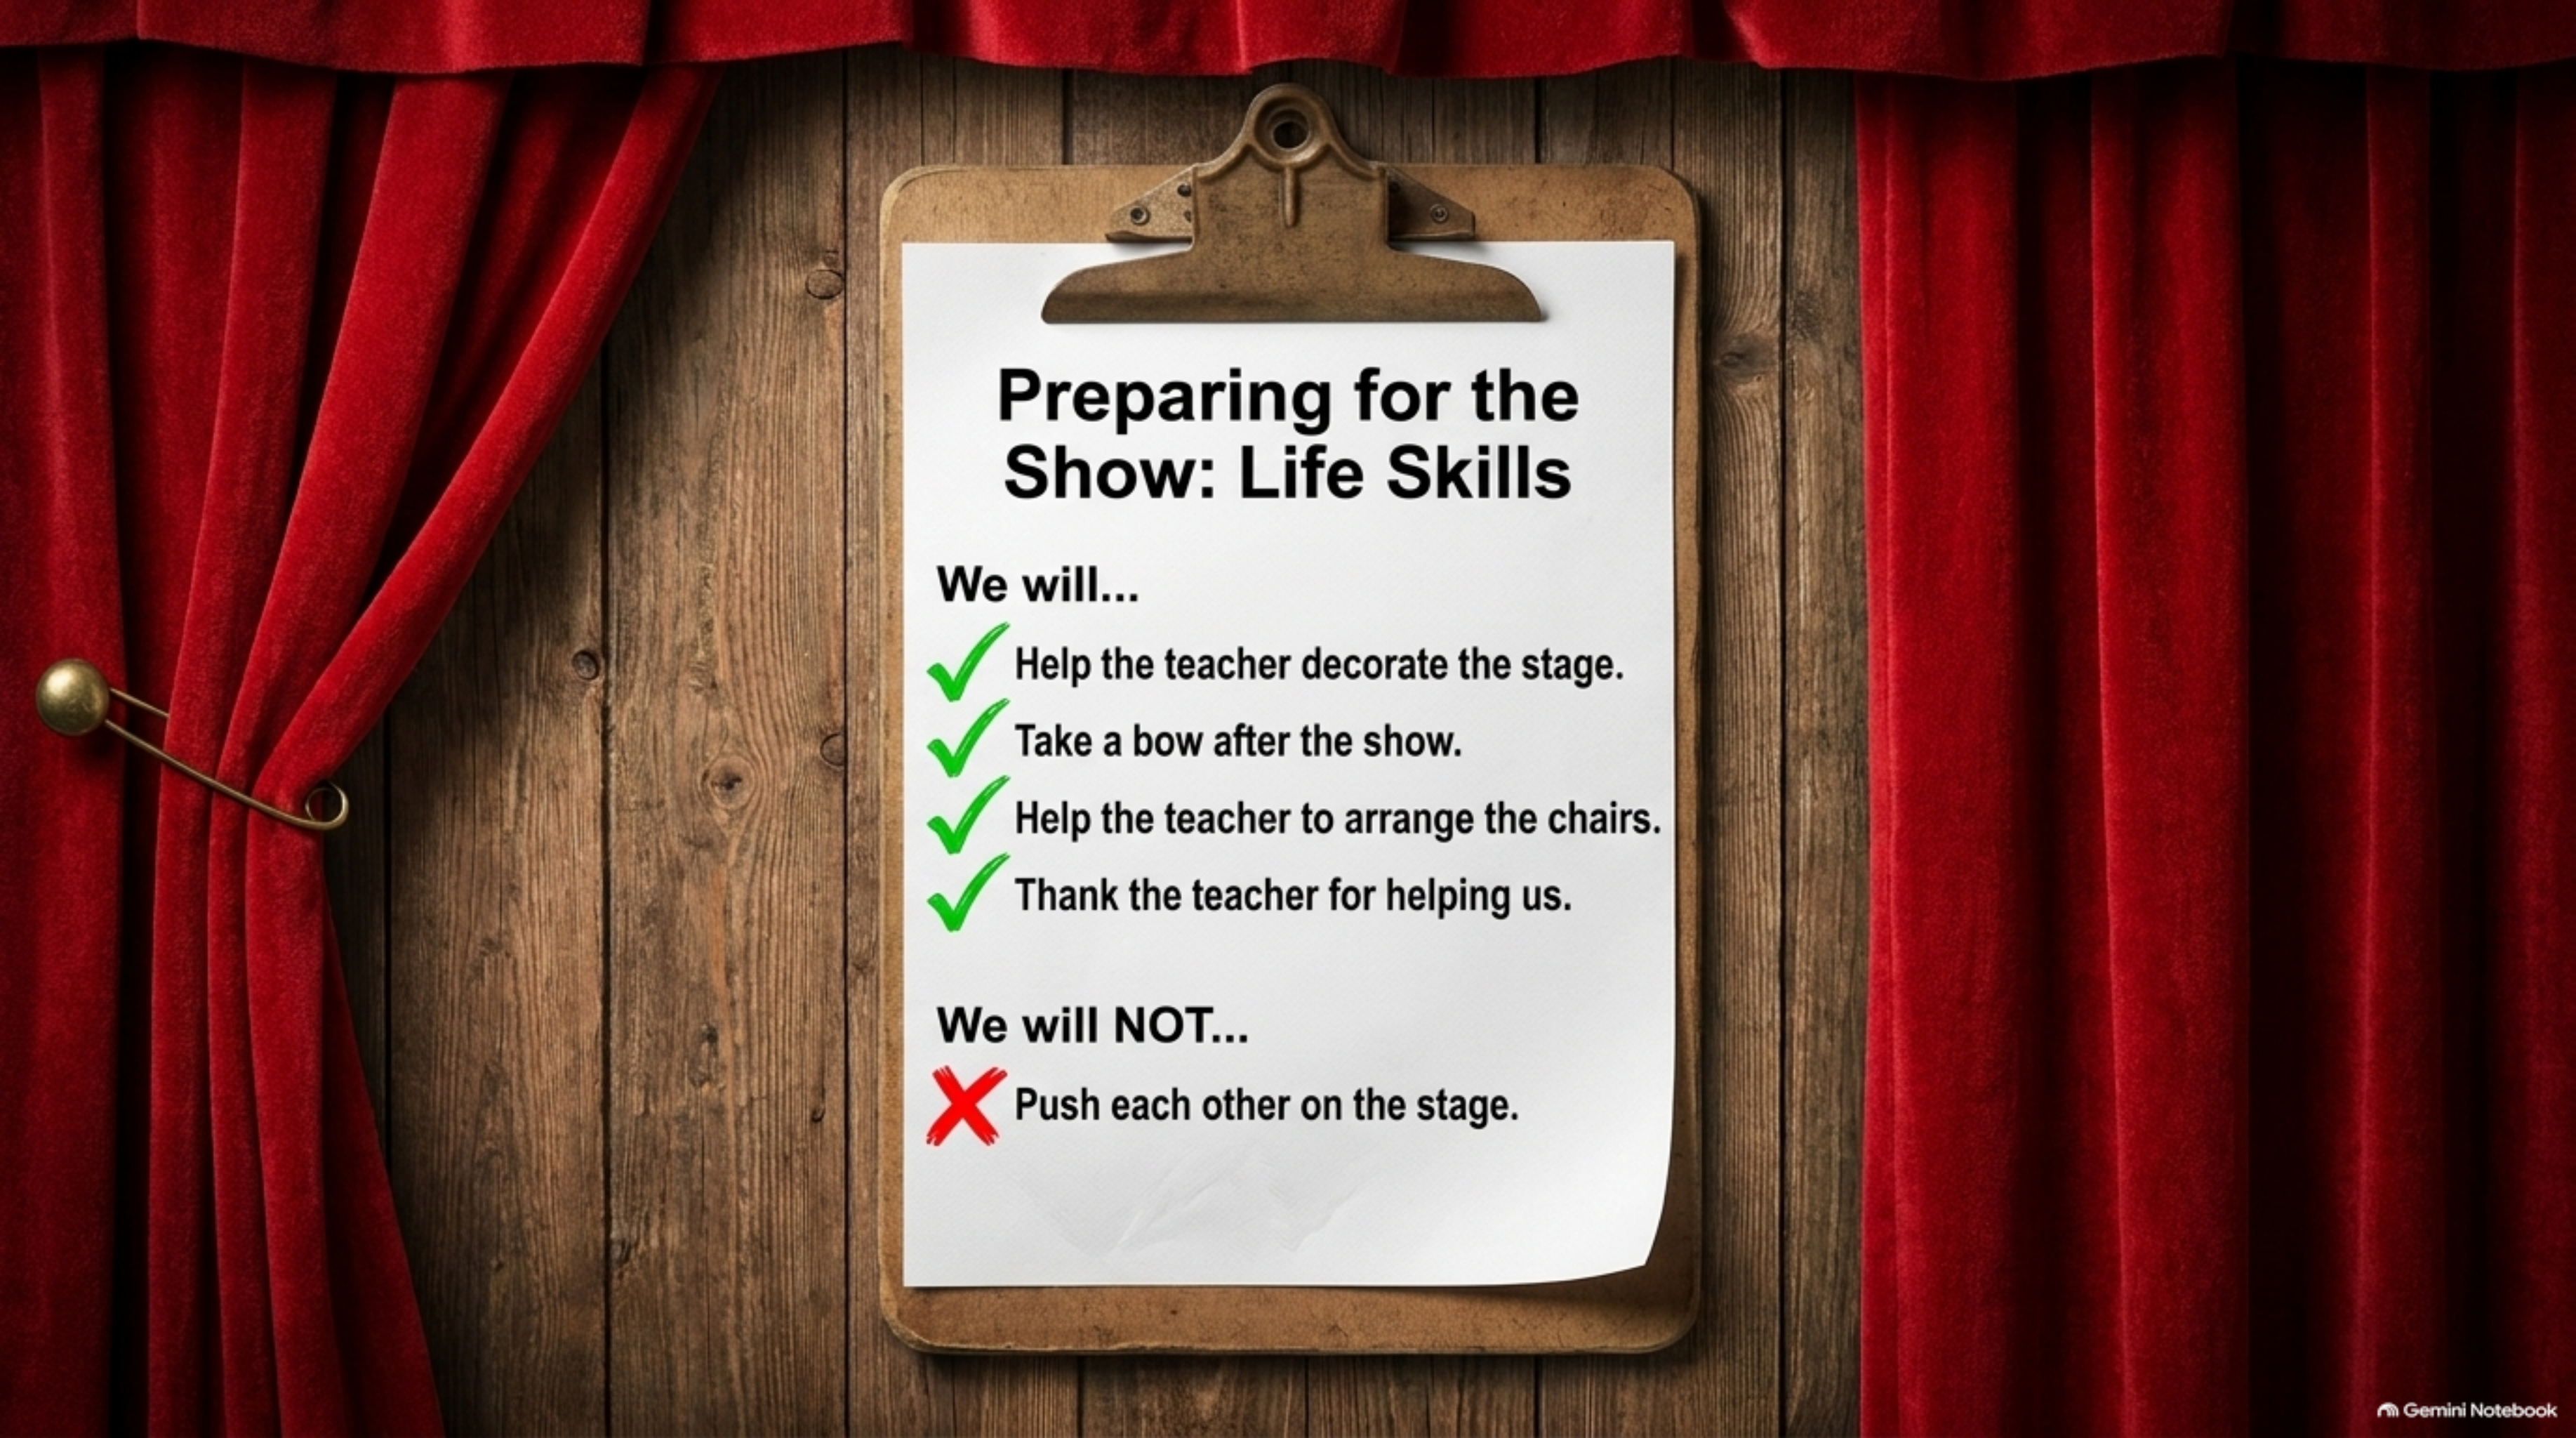

I want to eat.

I am happy.

I want to sing.

Preparing for the Show: Life Skills

We will...

- ✓ Help the teacher decorate the stage.
- ✓ Take a bow after the show.
- ✓ Help the teacher to arrange the chairs.
- ✓ Thank the teacher for helping us.

We will NOT...

- ✗ Push each other on the stage.

Our Complete Safari Scrapbook

The lion has a thick mane and likes to play in the sunflower field near his den.
